

Name: _____ Date: _____ Pd: _____

Food Inequality in D.C.

One World Student Ambassador: Nya Segears

2: Understanding the Reflection

Preview the following questions before you read the Reflection. Identify key words in the questions (you can underline them for quick reference). As you read, pay attention for those key words so that you will know where to look for the answers when you are finished reading.

Multiple Choice Questions:

1. How does household income relate to food access in Washington, D.C.?
 - a. People with high income have less access to food.
 - b. People with low income have more access to food.
 - c. People with high income have more access to food.
 - d. People with low or high income have the same access to food.
2. According to Nya, how are people who live in Ward 8 disadvantaged when it comes to food access?
 - a. They do not have as many grocery stores as other wards.
 - b. They do not have any full-service groceries stores in their ward.
 - c. They have the same number of grocery stores, but the food is too expensive.
 - d. They only have one full-service grocery store, but it requires a bus ride to get there.
3. According to Nya, how does the quality of food differ between wealthy and poor neighborhoods?
 - a. The food quality is worse in wealthy neighborhoods than poor ones.
 - b. The food quality is better in poor neighborhoods than in wealthy ones.
 - c. The food quality is better in wealthy neighborhoods than in poor ones.
 - d. The food quality is about the same in wealthy and poor neighborhoods.
4. According to Nya, how does low quality food affect a person's health?
 - a. Low quality food can cause you to be underweight.
 - b. Low quality food can lead to life-threatening diseases.
 - c. Low quality food is fine as long as you don't eat it too often.
 - d. Low quality food has no significant effect on a person's health.
5. According to Nya, who can help address the problem of food inequality in D.C.?
 - a. People in Ward 7 and Ward 8.
 - b. People in Ward 1 and 3 who are wealthy.
 - c. People in affected communities and the government.
 - d. People in charge of running grocery stores around D.C..

